GCB Symposium 2019

Thursday, January 31, 2019, 08h30–18h15, followed by an Apéro
Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, Freiestrasse 3, 3012 Bern, and Department of Physiology, Bühlplatz 5, 3012 Bern (Morning Sessions)

08h30–09h45   Talks I & Poster Flash I
09h45–10h15   Coffee Break
10h15–11h30   Talks II & Poster Flash II
11h30–13h00   Poster Session A
12h30–14h00   Lunch Break (two groups)
13h30–15h00   Poster Session B
15h00–15h30   Coffee Break
15h30–16h00   GCB Award for Best PhD Thesis
16h00–17h00   Keynote Lecture:
               Prof. Dr. Dominique Soldati-Favre
               Department of Microbiology and Molecular Medicine,
               Faculty of Medicine, University of Geneva
               «Prison Break» Toxoplasma egress from infected cells is a tightly programmed event controlled by a lipid mediator
17h00–17h30   Lecture:
               Anna Severin
               Swiss National Science Foundation
               «Predatory Publishing: Shedding light on the deceptive publishing industry»
17h30–        New Developments
               Apéro

http://www.gcb.unibe.ch